The day features visits to and demonstrations on organs in town and on the campuses of Carleton and Saint Olaf Colleges. As a highlight, Professor John Ferguson will introduce us to the unique splendors of the new Holtkamp instrument in the renovated Boe Chapel, giving us a chance to directly compare it with an earlier Holtkamp design at the Carleton Concert Hall. The "Holtkamp Sound" has many facets! You'll have a bit of open-console time to share as well, so remember to bring some music.

If you have not placed a reservation for the tour and would like to go, please call Michael Barone.

A Gala Celebration of Music in the Valley

By Laura Edman

This gala is a collaboration between the major musical organizations in the valley and will be quite the grand evening of music. The event is free and takes place on Saturday, October 3, 8:00 pm at Trinity Lutheran Church in Stillwater. Joining forces will be the Valley Chamber Chorale, Music St. Croix, the St. Croix Jazz Orchestra, the Trinity Concert Series and the St. Croix Concert Series. Each group will give a taste of the feasts to come in their seasons. George Akerley's A Sweet for Mother Goose for organ and narrator will be performed by Trinity members Laura Edman and Sonia Esch. Edman recently received her DMA in organ performance at the University of Minnesota where she studied with Dean Billmeyer. Esch directs children's choirs at Trinity and is a Stillwater elementary music teacher. Akerley's A Sweet for Mother Goose was the winner of the 2004 Holtkamp-AGO Award in Organ Composition. ♪

Dean's Column

Nunc Dimittis: John Christian Schreiner (1933-2009), 75, passed away after a very short illness on August 14. He was the second of four children born to Alexander Schreiner, former Mormon Tabernacle organist. A very private man, I am honored to call him a friend. I attended his memorial service and was very moved by the words shared by a close friend, one of his sons, and Michael Barone. The service was tender, strong, positive, honest; the congregation singing in parts was beautiful. He will be missed.

Also, recent word on Dr. Paul Manz, 90, is that he has moved from his residence, has colon cancer, is resting comfortably; he would appreciate your thoughts and prayers. Cards can be sent to him at: St. Anthony Park Home, 2237 Commonwealth Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55108.

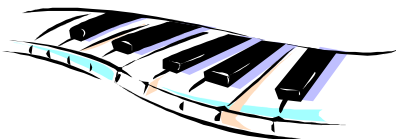

I remind you of the continuing Widor Marathon at Nativity Catholic Church in St. Paul on Sunday afternoons at 2:00. See information on page 4 and note slight changes from the September issue.

I have, in conversations with several people, heard different stories about the 59-rank Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ (1966) in the concert hall at Macalester College.

1. There is a multi-million-dollar project to remodel and improve the Macalester College fine arts complex.
2. The organ may be removed from the concert hall.
3. The organ may be replaced with an electronic instrument.
4. There is a desire to gain more stage platform space to accommodate larger ensembles.

If you, as a TCAGO member, have views or concerns about this project, need more information, or want to help save this instrument, please contact: Kathleen Murray, Provost KMurray@Mac.edu, Telephone: 651-696-6160; Brian Rosenberg, President RosenbergB@Mac.edu, Telephone: 651-696-6207; Mark Mazullo, Music Department Chair Mazullo@Mac.edu, Telephone 651-696-6582.

TCAGO Archive News "Pipenotes, December 1949" October 2009

Jerry Bonstrom, Archivist

Next year we will be celebrating the centennial of our chapter. Consider another Chapter milestone: in December 2009, our Pipenotes newsletter will celebrate its 60th anniversary.

Here are a few highlights from Pipenotes No. 1, Vol. 1

- From her column, "On the Beam with the Dean," Mary Fellows (our dean in 1949) writes: "There is a spirit throughout to make ours an outstanding group. Aside from the regular meetings, Robert Wolf has arranged for three outstanding artists. Tom Johnson and Byron Arneson are in charge of an extra recital by Virgil Fox."
- Ms. Fellows also writes about student groups being organized for the first time.
- She continues, "Another new project is a placement bureau being organized by Miss Harriet Allen [our secretary in 1918-1919 who reported on the June, 1918 picnic in Northfield—see "Archive News," May, '08.] This service should be of great value to both organists and churches."
- On page two under the heading "Demi-Semi-Quavers," we learn that Elizabeth Abeler Stodola [our dean 1980-82] had a baby boy on May 18, and that Mr. and Mrs. Paul Manz had a baby boy on October 26.
- There's a review of the Brahms Requiem sung by the Motet and Palestrina Choirs at House of Hope Presbyterian Church in St. Paul on October 25. Eugene Nordgren was the conductor and Edward Berryman was the organist. The reviewer was Peter

Johnson (1870-1966) our dean in the 1935-36 season.

- On page three there's an account by Ralph Shoemaker of the October 16 Guild Service at Elim Lutheran Church in Scandia.
- Peter Johnson writes another review. This one is about Edward Berryman's recital at Northrop Auditorium on October 7. "He is absolutely acquainted, in head, hands, and feet, with the instrument he plays and seems to enjoy every note he brings out." (Edward Berryman—1920-2008—was our dean, 1968-69.)
- On page four, Martha Baker reviews the November 16 recital of Rupert Sircom (1897-1962) at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Minneapolis. "Mr. Sircom's superb playing reveals the religious reverence, poetic sensitivity and architectural grandeur of Bach's music. His registration is never fussy but always effective."

There's much more in the 1949 issue of Pipenotes, but I better stop writing and respect the space limitations of this 2009 issue.

Our TCAGO archives received a wonderful gift about a month ago. Laura Edman donated a copy of her doctoral thesis, A History of the Northrop Memorial Auditorium Aeolian-Skinner Organ, Opus 892. Thank you, Laura. We're very grateful. ♪

The anthem for the service will be And I Saw a New Heaven by Edgar Bainton, a classic of the Anglican choral tradition, whose text is from the Revelation of Saint John. The choir will sing an Anglican Chant setting of Psalm 148, the appointed psalm for the day. The guest organist for the service will be Helen Jensen; James Frazier will conduct. Following the concert the choir will sing the Messe Solennelle in C-sharp minor, op. 16 of Louis Vierne, originally composed for choir and two organs.

A festive reception will follow the service to which all are invited. A free-will offering will be received to benefit the Winifred Bean Evensong Fund, which was established by former organist Howard Don Small. Bean was an Episcopalian philanthropist and a lover of the Anglican church music. The church is located at 60 Kent Street, one block north of Summit Avenue and one block east of Dale Street. Off-street parking is available on Summit. The church is also handicap accessible from Kent Street.

From American Public Media, Pipedreams® is public radio's weekly program dedicated to the artistry of the pipe organ. Host Michael Barone's celebration of the "king of instruments" is heard on stations nationwide. Visit www.pipedreams.org to locate a broadcast station in your area.

APOBA is a proud supporter of Pipedreams®. www.apoba.com

This is the first of two programs derived from the Eastman-Rochester Organ Initiative (EROI) that took place February 13-14-15 this past winter. The Rochester Chapter of the AGO, the Rochester Theatre Organ Society and public radio station WXXI-91.5FM collaborated in a three-day organ orgy with Pipedreams host Michael Barone. These events featured new instruments, at the Sacred Heart Cathedral (2008 Fritts organ) and Christ Church Episcopal (2008 GoART Casparini Project organ), along with an afternoon extravaganza at the Rochester Auditorium Theatre. 🎵
